Anaheim, California (May 1, 2006) Axis Technical Group, Inc. (Axis), a Staffing and Technology Consulting firm, today announced the opening of a “near shore” development office in Monterrey, Mexico. This office will provide a valuable, cost effective solution to the increasing need for companies to save money in project development costs.

“We are excited about providing our customers a better alternative to India and other locations. Our office provides significant cost reductions without the headaches. It has also provided a platform to bring top notch talent here for short and long term supplemental positions“, says Michael Valdes, Axis President.

Heading the Monterrey office is Brenda Valadez, who has extensive experience recruiting for positions in both Mexico and the United States. The contact information for the Monterrey office is:
