Axis Technical Group, Inc. Announces Key New Addition

ANAHEIM, CA – (October 1, 2008) Axis Technical Group, a leading provider of Information Technology services, today introduced David Logsdon as the newest member of its management team. David will be the Vice President of Professional Services for Axis Technical Group, and CEO of the company's division in India, Axilon Technologies. In the dual roles, David will oversee all aspects of the offshore services that Axis Technical provides to clients.

David is the former CIO at Lending Tree Loans and is an Information Technology leader with over fifteen years of experience in Application Development, Project Management, Program Management and Organizational Planning. As an Information Technology Executive, he has successfully delivered large-scale, enterprise-wide technology solutions with an in depth understanding of the pieces that make up the overall IT environment. He has specific expertise in Strategic and Operational Planning, Offshore/Onshore Support Models, Organizational Development, and Enterprise Software Development and Delivery.

Axilon Technologies began operation in 2007 and provides software development, maintenance and specific technology expertise to the Axis Technical client base through its Strategic Consulting Services team. "David's wealth of experience and leadership will further enhance our professional services capabilities and reliability for our customers," explains Michael Valdes, President of Axis Technical Group. Valdes adds that, "David is an established professional who has repeatedly demonstrated the ability to effectively lead and manage large, complex teams of resources locally and abroad, making him a perfect fit for our overall Consulting strategy."

Axis Technical Group, Inc. is a premiere Technology Services firm headquartered in Anaheim, California with offices in San Diego, California, and Monterrey, Mexico, as well as operations in Pune and Satara, India. Axis Technical Group's President and CEO, Michael Valdes has built the company's foundation upon core values of Quality, Consistency, Honesty, Loyalty, and Excellence through hard work.
